DAVID ANTHONY BREAUX,

Petitioner,

WARDEN, San Quentin State Prison,

Respondent.

No. 2:93-cv-0570-JAM-EFB (TEMP)

DEATH PENALTY CASE

ORDER

In an August 2015 joint statement, the parties identified the evidentiary hearing claims which require live testimony, the claims which will be submitted solely on an expanded record, and the outstanding claims which will not require unique fact finding. The parties have now proposed a schedule for depositions, pre-hearing motions, and the evidentiary hearing. ECF No. 294.

The court finds the schedule proposed by the parties to be appropriate and supported by good cause. Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:
